

Procurement Management Information System (PMIS) is now operational...

Are you a public Procuring entity?

Is your office connected to Internet Services?

Do you work in the Procurement Management Unit (PMU)?

Do you have basic IT skills for Internet browsing ?

Are you conversant with the Systems for Checking and Monitoring developed by PPRA?

If your answer to the above questions is YES, then PMIS is for you. Please request your User name and Password and start using the system now! It is a web-based system, simple to use and can save you time, paper and money. Why send your Annual Procurement Plan (APP) and monthly reports using snail mail – The easier and simpler way is just a few clicks away. Get connected to your Internet and type <http://pmis.ppra.go.tz> or go to www.ppra.go.tz and click the link to PMIS.

The screenshot shows the PMIS login and registration interface. At the top, there is a logo for PMIS (Procurement Management Information System) and the text 'The United Republic of TANZANIA'. Below the logo, there is a banner with the text 'Corrupt free Procurement Delivers Value for Money to the Public.::: Lets Join Hi'. The main content area is divided into two sections: 'PMIS Member ID' and 'Sign In'. The 'PMIS Member ID' section includes a 'Sign Up!' button and a note: 'New Member? Please click the button below for new member registration.' The 'Sign In' section includes fields for 'User Name:' and 'Password:', and a 'Sign In' button.

What you have to do...

- If you have a User name and Password, then sign in and start using the system
- If you do not have a User name and Password, then sign up by completing a User name and Password request form. Alternatively, call PPRA at +255 22 2121236 and speak to IT Officers.

Lets us comply with the Public Procurement Act 21 of 2004. In this way, the Government will achieve Value for Money in Public Procurement.
